Challenge, Creativity, Compassion: Create a pure heart in me – Psalm 51:10

Prayer of the week – Jenson

Dear God

*We thank you for peace, kindness, family, friends and all the good people around us.
Thank you for the food that you give us and especially for the water on these hot days.*

AMEN

Keeping cool at break time

This week the weather has been very warm. The children at Cavendish School have been able to enjoy their playtimes and lunchtimes. The midday staff arranged various activities in the cooler and shadier parts of the playground for the children to enjoy.

Library book returns

Please can you return any library books you have at home that your child may have taken out prior to covid restrictions. We are missing a number of books from all areas of the library. Many thanks for your support with this.

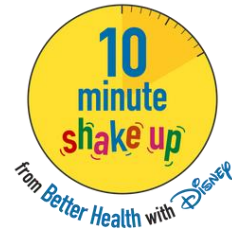

Sports Day - Thursday 30th June 2022 1.15pm

Parents/carers, family and friends are invited to watch and support this year sports day on the afternoon of 30th June 2022. Should the weather postpone this the reserve sports day will be on the afternoon of 7th July 2022. Please make sure your child comes to school in their PE Kit on Sports day and brings a hat and water bottle.

Curious Sparks Exhibition at Melford Hall

The art work that the children created last term with Curious Sparks was recently exhibited at Long Melford Hall. Thank you to the National Trust for providing the families of Cavendish School free entry over the Jubilee half term, we hope some of you were able to visit and see the exhibition in person.

RSC Workshop - Neptune Class

This week Neptune class were visited by an acting member of the Royal Shakespeare Company. The morning we spent learning some drama and sound techniques. We exercised different styles of walking and emphasising words for better impact for the audience. The lady that ran the workshop has been playing Margaret on tour in Much Ado About Nothing for a year and she gave us lots of advice. At the end of the workshop we rehearsed the last scenes of our play. Jenson and Beau.

Much Ado About Nothing - Year 5/6 – Performance to Parents – 7th July

The children in Neptune Class will be performing Much Ado about Nothing to parents on the morning of 7th July, exact timings will follow.

Much Ado About Nothing - Year 5/6 Wolsey Theatre Performance– tickets now on sale

We are very excited that year 5 and 6 once again have the opportunity to perform at the Wolsey Theatre on Tuesday 19th July. Tickets are now on sale, please see details below on how to book tickets. Further details to follow regarding the whole day event plan for the children.

IN SCHOOL THIS WEEK

Mars Class - We have been learning to share equally and to make sure the answer is fair. Kaira

Jupiter Class - This week we have been practising telling the time to 5 minutes. In English we wrote a story about wild things. My story was set in a forest with a tiny little pond. In science we used magnets, Ivymay

Saturn Class - This week we have read a new book called The Great Kapok Tree, the story is about how a man who shouldn't cut down a tree and how it affects the animals. We are learning a new science about between the animals and humans. Emma

Neptune Class - This week in Neptune, we have a new class teacher, Mr Moore. Mr Moore is really nice and caring. We have learnt about counting millilitres to litres and we have also started learning about space and earth and a bit about what happens to the sun and the moon. Amy
