Challenge, Creativity, Compassion: Create a pure heart in me – Psalm 51:10

Prayer of the week - By Joe

We thank you for all the teachers that help us have a good education and are full of kindness.
Also thank you for the wonderful things that our teachers give us to help us learn.
AMEN

What have we learnt this week : Class News

Mars: 'We have been celebrating Chinese New Year. We had the story of the Animal Race. The huge dragon was kind and compassionate to the bunny. It is the Year of the Rabbit. We have been making dragon masks and doing dragon dancing. I was in the head and I could see out of the mouth.' - Mioni

Jupiter: In our phonics lessons this week we have been working on two tasks. Carpet Crew have been recapping their learning about split digraphs. Myles knows "The two letters work together to make a sound. I remember that a and e work together in the word shape."

Table Toppers have been writing their own version of the Jewish creation story. They have challenged themselves to use subordination conjunctions and suffixes.

Saturn: This week I really enjoyed swimming, we used floats to help up make splashes with our feet. I enjoyed making a fortune teller for Chinese New Year, I might make another one. I love lunchtime football club too, it has been a fantastic week! - Henry

Neptune: This week we have been doing a lot of topic work, we have been learning about rivers, specifically the river Thames, we have been studying the barriers. In math we have been learning about decimals and how to times them by 10, 100 and 1000. We have had an English lesson every day, we are reading a book called Holes by Louise Sacher. We have wrote a diary entry, fairy tale and a letter so far. - Beau

Volunteer Readers

We were pleased to welcome our new volunteer readers this week. If you have a regular hour to spare each week we would be very grateful for your time. Please contact the school office for more information.

Neptune Class interviews with the local community

We are delighted to share some of the work Neptune Class have created after speaking with members of the local community and capturing their memories of Cavendish School.

My sister was at Cavendish School from 2005 to 2011. Their typical day was almost the exact same as ours & they had: register, lesson, break, lunch, play, lesson, collective worship and homework. When she was in the school a lot of changes were made to the school. For example the trim ball and the new class extension.

Some of her favourite events were her recorder solo. As she described it "My brilliant recorder solo" And when she had a fake wedding for her teacher.

We have been researching about the history by interviewing a pupil or a member of staff. I chose a member of staff. They told me the school has changed a lot since they've been there at the school.

They said there used to be a pirate ship in the playground but it got replaced with a climbing frame, the sheds also moved for more play space.

Word Book Day – 2nd March 2023

To reinforce our focus on reading this year, we will be celebrating World Book Day on 2nd March. We are mindful of financial restraints families are facing at present and in a change to recent years, we are asking that parents do not send children in costumes, but to make a hat or mask representing their chosen character. The children will need to bring their chosen book into school on World Book Day. The day will be filled with activities to encourage the children to read and enjoy literacy. If you would like any resources for your hat or mask, then please contact the school office.

This year our theme is: 'You Are a Reader'

Instead of dressing up in a costume, this year the children will be sharing their chosen book through a simple handmade mask or hat that links to a story, which they will wear with school uniform.

Please bring your hat/mask and book into school on Thursday 2nd March 2023 to celebrate World Book Day.

Do you have a hat at home? You could reuse one that you already have to create your World Book Day version, or use a band of card to make your own headband. Be creative or simply show the characters from your chosen book.

Here are some ideas to inspire and guide you:

If you need a cardboard band to make a hat, or a paper plate for your mask, please ask in school.

RSPB Big Garden Bird Watch 27-29th January 2023

Be part of the Big Garden Bird Watch. Simply choose an hour between 27 and 29 January and count the birds you see land in your garden, on your balcony, or in your local park. Children have been given an information and tally sheet to record any birds. Please remember to upload your sightings www.rspb.org.uk/birdwatch The children will also be taking part in the Big Schools Bird Watch during this term within the school grounds.
